Senior Communities (over 50 units) that hold "RCFE" (Residential Care Facility for the Elderly) state licensed

Larger communities that offer independent and assisted living options to those who do not require 24-hour nursing care. These will also offer daily living assistance (AL) as well as health care supervision. The price of rent in this area is from $2500/month to $7500/month (AL costs additional) as well as one-time entrance fee.

Private Homes (also called "Board and Care" homes)

Typically 6 units or less with live-in caregivers. Their prices include the care costs and are negotiable. Genral range is $2200-$6500. Simi Valley has least expensive.

These homes offer the same residential care and are "RCFE"s as those above, but do not have the social activities, fine dining, or transportation elements.

RECOMMENDATION: With only 6 beds, many of these smaller homes will be full. Send an email to all/many of them to see who has an opening; then call.
